Important Information:

- Pilgrims who wish to change their plans for any reason and do not want to join the 1st or 2nd day trek from Darchen for the Kailash Parikrama must cover their accommodation and other expenses in Darchen at their own cost.
- If you choose not to go to Dirapuk, you have to return from Yama Dwar after completing the darshan of Mt. Kailash (South Face) and stay for two nights in Darchen and wait for other group members to complete their trek.

- If you are at Dirapuk on the second day of the trek and decide not to continue to Zuthulpuk, you must inform the guide to make arrangements for your return to Darchen for the night at your own cost.
- All additional expenses, including accommodation and meals in Darchen, will be the responsibility of the traveler(s) changing their schedule.
- If any traveller experiences problems such as altitude sickness during the Kailash journey after crossing the Tibet border from Nepal and needs to return to Nepal or their home country, all related costs must be borne by the traveller themselves. Hence, a High-Altitude Insurance is recommended.
- Above rates are valid for 2026 Yatra and any increase in USD will be applicable if the rates drastically go up. Also, if the visa has to be issued on an urgent basis, the cost would be extra, since all package cost is based on normal days visa processing.

Additional Recommendations:

- Travel Insurance: We strongly recommend that all Yatris obtain comprehensive travel insurance that covers trip cancellations, medical emergencies and evacuations. This ensures protection against unforeseen events that may lead to trip alterations or cancellations.
- Unforeseen Circumstances : Please be aware that certain situations, such as natural disasters, political unrest, or other events beyond our control, may necessitate changes to the scheduled itinerary. In such cases, we reserve the right to modify or cancel the yatra. We will inform you promptly of any such changes and discuss available options.
- High-Altitude Medical Insurance: Since the trip that we offer is adventure-based, we advise all travellers to take medical insurance to protect against any unforeseen circumstances. The insurance should provide adequate coverage for baggage, medical expenses, cancellation, helicopter evacuation, and emergency repatriation. If you do not have travel insurance, you must have a credit card with at least a USD 5,000 limit.

Important Pre Departure Information

Clothings You Need

- Casual wears and comfortable walking / trekking shoes are the rule of Tibet. Be sure to bring warm clothing as nights and early mornings can be quite chilly to cold. Indian Pilgrims are advised strictly not to wear Sari during this yatra.
- Winter wear: Gore tex material, though expensive, is highly recommended. Down jacket, raincoat or windbreakers, thermal under wears, Jackets, warm trousers & woolen shirts (cotton will also do), warm sweaters, woolen gloves, sun hat, comfortable shoes, light leather boots in case of snow, woolen balaclava ('monkey cap') & scarf/dust mask to protect your eyes & nose from dust.

Bring With You

- You may bring the snacks for along the way such as chocolates, dry fruits, toffees etc. Strong water bottle & water purifying tablets. Personal medical kit and Diamox tablet (for high altitude). Sun glasses (to protect your eyes from UV, which is especially strong in high altitudes). Bring all the medicines, cosmetics, personal toilet items etc. Carrying a small first aid kit is also a good idea.
- Sun block or sun screen lotion, wet tissues (Fresh-ones are excellent to wipe off the dust), clothes-line/clips, needle & thread, body spray (handy for smelly boots/feet and for a round of spray in the toilet tent), toilet paper, torch & spare batteries, day pack (small shoulder bag).

Health

- This is one of the toughest high altitude road journeys on earth. You must be physically fit - no other ways about that. Generally patients with asthma & heart problems suffers acclimatizing to high altitudes. In your interests it is essential you should be examined by your doctor to know about your health condition and your ability to cope up with the rigors of high altitude travel for days in 'no road' conditions, extreme cold, dust, trekking to an altitude of 19500ft. during the Parikrama.

Altitude Sickness

- As you are traveling over high terrain, you are likely to experience symptoms and discomfort of altitude sickness (headache, loss of appetite, nausea, exhaustion, sleeplessness, breathlessness etc.) until your body adjusts to the elevation. This can take a couple of days or more depending on an individual.
Drink plenty of water and be calm. Do not drink alcohol or smoke prior to and during the tour. We also recommend you carry a strip of diamox tablets.

Currency

- Money can be exchanged at Bank of China at Kyirung county. Exchange all your remaining Yuan at Kyirung county.

Risks & Liability

- Bon Voyagers will put every effort to make your journey smooth and pleasant. However, all the tours in Tibet are conduct strictly under the rules & regulation of Tibet Tourism Bureau (TTB). Therefore, we shall not be responsible for any change and alteration in the program due to unavoidable circumstances such as landslide, road blockage, flood, snow, political unrest, cancellation of flight, delay arrival, sickness or accidents. Any extra cost incurred thereof shall be borne by the clients on the spot.

Cancellation By The Company

We may be obliged to cancel your trip by reasons like border closed, permit not issued or cancelled by the government, war, riots, civil disturbances, strikes, natural disasters, terrorist activities or threat of such and closure of airport etc. Under such circumstance, we will advise you as soon as possible, we can offer you an alternative trip of comparable standard or make a refund of the money paid to us after deducting the expenses that was spent to make the bookings of the visas, permits, hotels and vehicle. A clear bill of the expenses will be provided to you so that you will be able to claim the insurance. However, we can be under no other liability to you in such cases. Sometimes Chinese government personnel will refuse to give you entry even if you have permit, if they think you are not eligible based on their criteria. Please do not start your journey until you get confirmation of permit.

FAQ

- What is the total duration of the Overland Yatra?

The journey is 13 Nights and 14 Days, starting and ending in Kathmandu.

- What is the primary route for this tour?

The route goes from Kathmandu to the Timure/Rasuwegadhi border, through Kyirong, Saga, and finally to Lake Mansarovar and Mt. Kailash.

- How does the Overland tour differ from the Helicopter tour?

The Overland tour involves more driving and gradual altitude gain via the Kyirong border, whereas the helicopter version uses flights to reach the border faster.

- What is included in the "Package Cost"?

It includes the Tibet Permit, Chinese Group Visa, all meals (vegetarian), 3-star hotel stays in Kathmandu, guesthouse stays in Tibet, transportation by bus, oxygen cylinders, and a professional crew.

- What are the age limits?

The Yatra is open to pilgrims aged 15 to 70 years.

- Is a passport mandatory for Indian citizens?

Yes, a valid Indian Passport with at least 6 months of validity from the travel date is mandatory.

- What is the visa process for Tibet?

We handle the China Group Visa. You must provide a clear scanned copy of your passport at booking and submit the original passport to us 45 days before departure for processing.

- Can I travel if I have heart or lung issues?

You must consult a physician. High-altitude travel is physically demanding; you should only participate if certified fit by a medical professional.

- How is the road condition from Kathmandu to the border?

The drive to Timure (Day 03) takes 6–7 hours along the Pasang Lhamu Highway. While parts are scenic, mountain roads can be bumpy.

- What kind of vehicle is used in Tibet?

We use comfortable, private A/C coaches or buses designed for the Tibetan Plateau.

- Do I need to carry my own heavy luggage?

We provide complimentary duffel bag. Our Sherpa staff and Tibetan crew assist with the group's main luggage, though personal daypacks are carried by the travelers.

- What temples do we visit in Kathmandu?

The itinerary includes a special Puja at Pashupatinath Temple, followed by visits to Gujeswori and Budhanilakantha (Jalanarayan Temple).

- Are we allowed to bathe in Lake Mansarovar?

Direct bathing inside the lake is currently prohibited by local authorities. However, pilgrims can collect water in buckets on the shore for a symbolic holy bath.

- What is the significance of "Yama Dwar"?

Known as the Gate of Death, it is the starting point of the Kora. It is believed that only pure souls can pass through this gate to begin the circumambulation of Mt. Kailash.

- What is Gauri Kunda?

Located after the Dolma La Pass, it is a sacred emerald lake associated with Goddess Parvati. Pilgrims often collect its holy water.

- How do we handle altitude sickness?

The itinerary includes a dedicated acclimatization day in Kyirong (Day 05). We also provide oxygen cylinders and have trained staff to monitor your health.

- What if I get sick and need to return?

If a traveler cannot continue due to health issues, all costs for rescue, evacuation and separate transportation back to Kathmandu must be borne by the traveler. Hence a high altitude insurance is recommended.

- Is the 3-day Kora mandatory?

No. If you do not wish to trek, you can stay back in Darchen. However, the costs for your stay and meals in Darchen during those 3 days will be your personal expense.

- Can I hire a horse or porter for the trek?

Yes. Ponies/horses and personal porters can be hired at Darchen/Yama Dwar. This must be managed locally and is not included in the package cost.

- What kind of clothing should I pack?

Layers are key. You need thermals, fleece jackets, waterproof trekking pants, and heavy woolens. Refer to our "Trekking Gear Checklist" for specifics.

- What is the "Axe of Karma"?

It is a rocky section during the descent from Dolma La Pass that symbolically signifies the "cutting off" of negative past karma.

- What kind of food is served?

We serve strictly Indian Vegetarian meals (Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner) prepared by our experienced Sherpa kitchen team.

- Is drinking water provided?

We provide water during the journey, but we highly recommend carrying a thermos to keep water warm in the cold Tibetan climate.

Secure Your Path Today!

Permits and slots for this sacred journey are limited and highly sought after. Early preparation is the key to a meditative and stress-free experience.
