Important Information:

- Pilgrims who wish to change their plans for any reason and do not want to join the 1st or 2nd day trek from Darchen for the Kailash Parikrama must cover their accommodation and other expenses in Darchen at their own cost.
- If you choose not to go to Dirapuk, you have to return from Yama Dwar after completing the darshan of Mt. Kailash (South Face) and stay for two nights in Darchen and wait for other group members to complete their trek.
- If you are at Dirapuk on the second day of the trek and decide not to continue to Zuthulpuk, you must inform the guide to make arrangements for your return to Darchen for the night at your own cost.
- All additional expenses, including accommodation and meals in Darchen, will be the responsibility of the traveler(s) changing their schedule.
- If any traveller experiences problems such as altitude sickness during the Kailash journey after crossing the Tibet border from Nepal and needs to return to Nepal or their home country, all related costs must be borne by the traveller themselves. Hence, a High-Altitude Insurance is recommended.
- Above rates are valid for 2026 Yatra and any increase in USD will applicable if the rates drastically go up. Also, if the visa has to issue urgent basis, the cost would be extra, since all package cost is based on normal days visa processing.

Additional Recommendations:

- Travel Insurance: We strongly recommend that all Yatris to obtain comprehensive travel insurance that covers trip cancellations, medical emergencies and evacuations. This ensures protection against unforeseen events that may lead to trip alterations or cancellations.
- Unforeseen Circumstances : Please be aware that certain situations, such as natural disasters, political unrest, or other events beyond our control, may necessitate changes to the scheduled itinerary. In such cases, reserves the right to modify or cancel the yatra. We will inform you promptly of any such changes and discuss available options.

BON VOYAGERS
— LET'S BREATHE IN NATURE —

- High-Altitude Medical Insurance: Since the trip that we offer is adventure-based, we advise all travellers to take medical insurance to protect against any unforeseen circumstances. The insurance should cover adequate coverage for baggage, medical expenses, cancellation, helicopter evacuation, and emergency repatriation. If you do not have travel insurance, you must have a credit card with at least a USD 5,000 limit.

Important Pre Departure Information

+ Clothings You Need

- Casual wears and comfortable walking / trekking shoes are the rule of Tibet. Be sure to bring warm clothing as nights and early mornings can be quite chilly to cold. Indian Pilgrims are advised strictly not to wear Sari during this yatra.
- Winter wear: Gore tex material, though expensive, is highly recommended. Down jacket, raincoat or windbreakers, thermal under wears, Jackets, warm trousers & woolen shirts (cotton will also do), warm sweaters, woolen gloves, sun hat, comfortable shoes, light leather boots in case of snow, woolen balaclava ('monkey cap') & scarf/dust mask to protect your eyes & nose from dust.

+ Bring With You

- You may bring the snacks for along the way such as chocolates, dry fruits, toffees etc. Strong water bottle & water purifying tablets. Personal medical kit and Diamox tablet (for high altitude). Sun glasses (to protect your eyes from UV, which is especially strong in high altitudes). Bring all the medicines, cosmetics, personal toilet items etc. Carrying a small first aid kit is also a good idea.

- Sun block or sun screen lotion, wet tissues (Fresh-ones are excellent to wipe off the dust), clothes-line/clips, needle & thread, body spray (handy for smelly boots/feet and for a round of spray in the toilet tent), toilet paper, torch & spare batteries, day pack (small shoulder bag).

Health

This is one of the toughest high altitude road journeys on earth. You must be physically fit - no other ways about that. Generally patients with asthma & heart problems suffers acclimatizing to high altitudes. In your interests it is essential you should be examined by your doctor to know about your health condition and your ability to cope up with the rigors of high altitude travel for days in 'no road' conditions, extreme cold, dust, trekking to an altitude of 19500ft. during the Parikrama.

Altitude Sickness

As you are traveling over high terrain, you are likely to experience symptoms and discomfort of altitude sickness (headache, loss of appetite, nausea, exhaustion, sleeplessness, breathlessness etc.) until your body adjusts to the elevation. This can take a couple of days or more depending on an individual.

Drink plenty of water and be calm. Do not drink alcohol or smoke prior to and during the tour. We also recommend you carry a strip of diamox tablets.

Currency

Money can be exchanged at Bank of China at Kyirung county. Exchange all your remaining Yuan at Kyirung county.

Risks & Liability

Bon Voyagers will put every effort to make your journey smooth and pleasant. However, all the tours in Tibet are conduct strictly under the rules & regulation of Tibet Tourism Bureau (TTB). Therefore, we shall not be responsible for any change and alteration in the program due to unavoidable circumstances such as landslide, road blockage, flood, snow, political unrest, cancellation of flight, delay arrival, sickness or accidents.

Any extra cost incurred thereof shall be borne by the clients on the spot.

Cancellation By The Company

We may be obliged to cancel your trip by reasons like border closed, permit not issued or cancelled by the government, war, riots, civil disturbances, strikes, natural disasters, terrorist activities or threat of such and closure of airport etc. Under such circumstance, we will advise you as soon as possible, we can offer you an alternative trip of comparable standard or make a refund of the money paid to us after deducting the expenses that was spent to make the bookings of the visas, permits, hotels and vehicle. A clear bill of the expenses will be provided to you so that you will be able to claim the insurance. However, we can be under no other liability to you in such cases. Sometimes Chinese government personnel will refuse to give you entry even if you have permit, if they think you are not eligible based on their criteria. Please do not start your journey until you get confirmation of permit.

FAQ:

- What are the age limits for this Yatra?

The age limit is strictly between 15 and 70 years. For Indian Nationals, you must not have turned 70 at the time of entering Tibet.

- Is a passport mandatory for Indian Citizens?

Yes, a valid Indian Passport with at least 6 months of validity from the date of departure is mandatory.

- Do I need a Visa?

Yes. We handle the China Group Visa and Tibet Travel Permit. For this, we require your original passport at our Delhi office at least 8–10 working days before the travel date.

- What if I am flying to Kathmandu instead of Lucknow?

If you choose to fly via Kathmandu, you must carry your Original Voter ID card as per the name on your air ticket.

- How physically fit do I need to be?

This is a high-altitude trek. You must be physically fit. If you have previous cardiac or pulmonary issues, you must consult a physician and provide a fitness certificate.

- What is Acclimatization?

It is the process of letting your body adjust to low oxygen levels. Our itinerary includes dedicated rest days in Simikot and Taklakot (4,025m) to ensure you are safe before starting the Kora.

- What happens if I get Altitude Sickness?

We provide oxygen cylinders for emergencies. If you cannot continue, our team will assist your descent. However, all additional costs for evacuation and separate stay must be borne by the traveler.

- What if I cannot complete the trek?

If you decide not to join the 1st or 2nd day of the trek from Darchen, you may stay back. However, hotel and meal expenses in Darchen during those days will be at your own cost.

- Can I hire a horse or porter?

Yes, ponies/horses and porters are available for the Kora at an additional personal cost. These should be requested through the guide at Darchen.

- What is the difficulty level of Day 07?

This is the toughest day, involving a 22 km trek over the Dolma La Pass (5,600m). It requires mental strength and steady breathing.

- Why should I keep my return flight flexible?

The Simikot and Hilsa sectors depend entirely on weather conditions. Helicopters cannot fly in poor visibility. We strongly recommend "Open" tickets or insured tickets that allow date changes.

- Who pays for extra stays during weather delays?

If the group is stuck at Simikot or Hilsa due to weather, any additional nights' accommodation and food costs are the responsibility of the traveler.
